

CHAPTER 19: WOMEN'S RIGHTS MOVEMENT

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| I. Introductory Overview Essay                                | 5K Words   |
| II. Theory of Women's Rights as Reform                        |            |
| First-, Second-, and Third Wave Feminism                             | 2-5K Words |
| • Liberal Feminism   |            |
| • Psychoanalytic Feminism  |            |
| • Radical Feminism   |            |
| Sources of Mobilization for Women's Rights                           | 2-5K Words |
| • Roots of Gender Inequality   |            |
| • Liberal Feminism   |            |
| • Religious Feminism/Christian,                                      |            |
| • Economic Change and Women's Rights                                 |            |
| • Socialist/Marxist Feminism, Post-Modern Feminism, Anarcha-feminism |            |
| Sources of Tension within Women's Rights Movement                    | 2-5K Words |
| • Race/Ethnic  |            |
| • Sexual Orientation   |            |
| • Class  |            |
| • Islamic Feminism, Black Feminism, Womanism                         |            |
| • Separatist Feminism and Lesbian Feminism                           |            |
| III. Historical Development of Women's Rights                 |            |
| Early Women's Rights Campaigns                                       | 2-5K Words |
| • Rights of Women in Colonial and early Modern America               |            |
| • 19 th Century Property Rights Movement                  |            |
| • Seneca Falls Convention  |            |
| • Divorce Rights   |            |
| Suffrage Movement  | 2-5K Words |
| • Equal Rights Association and the 15 th Amendment Debate |            |
| • American Women's Suffrage Association                              |            |
| • National Women's Suffrage Association                              |            |
| • National American Women's Suffrage Association                     |            |
| • Passage and Impact of the 19 th Amendment               |            |
| Women's Rights "Hiatus," 1920-1960                                   | 1-2K Words |
| 1960s Feminist Revival   | 2-5K Words |
| • National Organization of Women                                     |            |

|  |                          |
|--|--------------------------|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The Equal Right Amendment Campaign</li> </ul>   |                          |
| Reproductive Rights and Women’s Rights Controversy   | 1-2K Words               |
| Expanding Women’s Employment Opportunities   | 1-2K Words               |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Women and Military Service</li> </ul>   |                          |
| Post-Feminism Debate, 1980-Present   | 1-2K Words               |
| IV. Key Momenfts  | 500-1K Words Each |
| Seneca Falls Hosts First Women’s Rights Convention (1848)  |                          |
| Susan B. Anthony “Votes” (1872)  |                          |
| Alice Paul Authors the Equal Rights Amendment (1923)   |                          |
| Rosie the Riveter Introduced on “We Can Do It” Poster (1943)   |                          |
| Betty Friedan Publishes Feminine Mystique (1963)  |                          |
| “Bra Burning” at the Miss America Pageant (1969)   |                          |
| Chicago Women’s Liberation Union Issues Guide to StartingConsciousness-Raising Groups (1971)   |                          |
| Susan Faludi’s Backlash: The Undeclared War Against AmericanWomen Highlights Persistent Obstacles Against Women’sAdvances (1991)       |                          |
| V. Intersection of Women’s Rights Movement with Other Reform Movements  |                          |
| Women’s Rights and Abolition, Civil Rights, Communitarism,Labor Movement, LGBT Rights, Pacifism/Anti-war, ReligiousBenevolence, and Temperance | 2-5K Words               |
| VI. Future of Women’s Rights  |                          |
| Pro-Life Movement and Reproductive Freedom   | 2-5K Words               |
| Further Recognition of Work and Family Conflicts   | 2-5K Words               |
| VII. Author Suggested Illustrations, Tables, and Documents  |                          |
| Total Words   | 29-59K Words      |